

LOUDOUN VIRGINIA
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Partner Organizations

Loudoun has a vibrant business community that includes these economic development partners. Visit their websites to learn even more about the fantastic programs and services that Loudoun has to offer:

the hometown of the 21st century

Leesburg's Economic Development staff can assist you with all of your business development needs. Whether you're looking for a new business location, expanding an existing business, or ramping up your entrepreneurial ventures - make Leesburg your hometown of the 21st century!

The Loudoun County Chamber of Commerce is the largest chamber of commerce in Northern Virginia. More than 1,200 members form a premier network of businesses and community leaders in Loudoun.

The Loudoun Small Business Development Center is a not-for-profit organization that serves the needs of all small businesses through education, counseling and access to business resources.

Visit Loudoun promotes tourism and travel to Loudoun and its incorporated towns. The organization leads the Loudoun tourism industry to work together as a destination to generate visitor spending.

The Virginia Economic Development Partnership is the economic development authority for the Commonwealth of Virginia. They assist with site selection within Virginia.

The Greater Washington Initiative is a private-public partnership and an affiliate of the Greater Washington Board of Trade. GWI markets the Greater Washington region as a vibrant, economically and culturally diverse community for domestic and international business.

The Industrial Development Authority enables certain types of facilities to benefit from lower lending rates through the insurance of tax exempt revenue bonds.

Loudoun County Public Schools provide comprehensive education from kindergarten through grade 12 for more than 66,000 students in 80 schools.

biz.loudoun.gov